

Rule *256 Argument Courts

(a) Regular sessions of argument courts shall be held at such times as may be designated on the court calendar as published annually by the court. Special or adjourned sessions thereof may be held at such other times as the court may direct.

(b) The argument list shall consist only of cases requiring action by a Court en banc placed thereon pursuant to Bucks County Civil Rules 210*(a) and *(c) or 266(f), and Bucks County Criminal Rule 1123(g) and shall be published and circulated by the court administrator on the fifth Friday immediately preceding the date fixed for the commencement of the argument court session.

(c) Applications for continuance and other matters relating to such argument list shall be submitted to the court administrator.
