

Rule 1033*(a) Amendment

Unless otherwise permitted by agreement of the parties or by leave of court, pleadings amended before trial shall be executed, verified and filed in their amended form.

Amendments to pleadings allowed at the trial need not be executed, verified and filed.

Whenever a pleading is required to be attached to any brief or other document, it shall be set forth as amended to date.