

Rule 1920.3*(b). Social Security Number and Address

Every pleading or petition filed pursuant to these rules which makes a separate claim for relief shall include in its caption the social security number and present address of each adult. If the social security number is not available or the address is not known, the pleading shall contain an averment so stating, together with an explanation.