

Rule *502. Sessions of Jury Trials.

Regular sessions of criminal trials by jury shall be held during the several periods designated on the Court calendar as published annually by the Court. Special or adjourned sessions thereof may be held at such other times as will conform most conveniently to the business of the Court, the rules relating to the trial of cases, and the necessities of the occasion.