

Rule 5.10BJoinder and Consent

The court may act upon such applications forthwith and ex parte if all interested parties join therein or if the court is satisfied that the interests of all parties would be served and protected thereby, or may require notice thereof by citation or otherwise, to be served upon all interested parties before action thereon in such particular cases as it shall, by special order, direct.