

Rule 12.9B Joinder and Consent.

The Court may act upon such applications forthwith and ex parte if all parties in interest join therein or if the Court be satisfied that the interests of all parties would be served and protected thereby, or may require notice thereof by citation or otherwise, to be served upon all parties in interest before action thereon in such particular cases as it shall, by special order, direct.